

It's so nice having a quite time with my children when I get home from work and around the dinner table without being disrupted by unwanted calls. I would average about 30 calls a week during this time of day. Please continue this Do Not Call program.